The Speakers:

Fiona Burt

Fiona has worked as Playtime Co-Ordinator for Care for the Family. The Playtime project aims to support Church-based toddler group leaders in their family ministry.

Fiona has been involved with Toddler Groups for over 17 years and in that time has led and started several.

Richard Hardy -

Baptist Minister and Director of the Entheos Trust

Richard is a Baptist minister and has also been a Toddler Group Leader. He is Director of The Entheos Trust - a charity that Encourages Leaders; Enables Churches and Engages Community. He has over 25 years' experience of local church leadership. As a national speaker he has spoken at over 30 Christian Conferences. He has addressed thousands of Toddler Group Leaders Encouraging them to make the most of their ministry.

Sue Greene

Sue Greene is a Scripture Union Affiliate; A member of the 1277 Group and a practising Toddler Group Leader who has helped many groups across Cambridgeshire get started. She is full of enthusiasm and has decades of creative experience producing great crafts and giving wise advice.

"Following the Toddler Rocks! day, our toddler group are ordering T-shirts and fleeces with our logo on the front and name badges for our leaders. We are setting up a tent for toddlers at our church's "Fun in the Park" event for the community... Thank you for helping us to keep motivated."

"I came on the day despairing and wanting to give up. I left with fresh vision ready to get started."
