

EMBA WOMEN'S DAY

Saturday March 17th 10am - 4pm

Melton Mowbray Baptist Church. LE13 0FA

Speaker: Jo Robinson

Jo grew up in HK and returned to the UK to go to university where she became a Christian. She returned to Asia as a missionary, and stayed there for 19 years teaching during the daytime and visiting brothels in the evenings! She set up a project to give girls alternative work making jewellery. Returning to the UK in 2015, Jo became a pastoral minister in her church in Bath. Jo enjoys theatre, arts, and time with friends & family.

Speaker: Anne Davies

Anne, the daughter of a Baptist minister, moved to Nottingham in 1974 to get married. She was a probation officer, then a full-time mum to 3 boys, a foster carer, and adoption and fostering worker, and for 17 years a Baptist Minister. In her retirement, Anne is a grandma, preaches, teaches English to asylum seekers and refugees, walked the 500 miles Camino de Santiago, is a companion of the Northumbria Community, and is training to become a spiritual director.
