

Making payments to the EMBA for Home Mission

Andrea Wilson deals entirely with all Home Mission payments and maintains the giving records.

The payments are completely separate from all other payments to the EMBA.

Cheques should be made payable to EMBA Home Mission, and sent to the EMBA Office. It goes without saying that it is much more convenient and helpful administratively to pay by standing order, details as follows:

Bank: HSBC

Account Name: The Baptist Union of Great Britain

Sortcode: 40-19-35

Account Number: 81226789

Reference: correct name of your church (old names are still being used)

NB: a few churches are still paying into the wrong BUGB Account. It would be very helpful all-round if church treasurers could review their method of making Home Mission payments, and check that their payment details are correct.

In terms of helping cash flow for BUGB, please consider paying by standing order if you don't already.

If you pay by cheque, and continue to do so, please make your payments as soon or as early in the year as you are able. For a large organization like BUGB there is a significant benefit in receiving money as soon as possible.

If you would like to discuss any aspect of the above, please contact Andrea Wilson via email homemission.emba@gmail.com
